

Name:

Informative Speech Development

Complete the following section to demonstrate your initial efforts of invention for the presentation. Your answers to these questions will likely be amended and expanded as your preparation continues.

A. What is your issue area?
B. Preliminary Research Provide an MLA citation for at least 3 sources of support material.
C. Source Quality Check	Check each box to confirm that you have evaluated your support material. If you are not confident that a source meets each of these criteria, you should conduct additional research. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> My sources of support material are qualified. The audience will perceive my sources to be competent on the issue. The qualifications of my sources are easy to identify and will be easy to use for oral citations.<input type="checkbox"/> My sources of support material are unbiased. The audience will perceive my sources to be free of special interests, commercial or financial incentive, and significant political or philosophical bias.<input type="checkbox"/> My sources of support material are authoritative. I have used the primary resource (original author or collector and interpreter of data) for support material and avoided questionable secondary sources - especially sources such as Wikipedia that have minimal editorial standards or control.<input type="checkbox"/> My support material is relevant. Audience members will perceive my support material to be germane to the issue I am discussing AND relatable to their lived experience.<input type="checkbox"/> My support material is timely. It is current or chronologically appropriate for the issue I am discussing.
D. Based on your preliminary research, provide the following information about your issue area.
1. Why is your issue urgent?
2. Identify causes of your issue.
3. Identify effects of your issue.
E. Specific Purpose?
F. Central Idea?
G. Preview Statement?	