

Cannabis Withdrawal Syndrome: Clinical Reference for PCPs

The following are symptoms (common and less common) experienced by clients reporting cannabis withdrawal from treatment studies over the last decade.

common symptoms	less common symptoms
Mood	Physical
anger	chills
aggression	stomach pains irritability	shakiness
nervousness/anxiety	sweating
Behavioural	Mood
decreased appetite or weight loss	depressed mood restlessness sleep difficulties strange dreams

(National Cannabis Prevention and Information Center, 2016, p. 4)