

Activity

Quiz

1. Which of the following is the least effective way of dealing with verbal bullying?
 - ☐ silence
 - ☐ seeking support
 - ☐ avoidance
 - ☐ assertive responses
2. Bullying is a problem that affects...
 - ☐ bullies
 - ☐ school communities
 - ☐ victims
 - ☐ all of the above
3. Which statement is not true?
 - ☐ bullies tend to pick on bigger, stronger kids to build their reputation
 - ☐ bullies tend to pick on kids that they consider to be vulnerable
 - ☐ bullies tend to hide their behaviours from teachers
 - ☐ bullies tend to pick on kids who are socially isolated
4. Which of the following is an example of bullying known as social alienation?
 - ☐ a bully excluding himself from social groups in the school
 - ☐ a bully threatening to hurt the victim
 - ☐ a bully purposely excluding a person from their friendship group
 - ☐ a bully getting the victim alone so they can bully them without detection
5. Friendships and relationships you make during school years...
 - ☐ will probably not last into adulthood
 - ☐ may change and develop over time
 - ☐ will not involve arguments or conflict if they are truly good relationships
 - ☐ depend largely on social media

6. Which of the following is an example of passive-aggressive communication?

- ☐ sarcasm
- ☐ enunciation
- ☐ criticism
- ☐ manipulation

7. If a person exhibits good listening skills and direct eye contact during a conflict, their behaviour is an example of...

- ☐ passive communication
- ☐ aggressive communication
- ☐ assertive behaviour
- ☐ all of the above

8. Which of the following could be viewed as an example of cyber bullying?

- ☐ using a friend's password without their permission
- ☐ posting information online which teases a friend just for a joke
- ☐ forwarding a nasty email about a friend to others in the friendship group
- ☐ all of the above

9. What is netiquette?

- ☐ a set of acceptable online behaviours
- ☐ your digital history
- ☐ your online behaviour
- ☐ a set of rules regarding bullying

10. In relation to child abuse, which of the following is considered to be neglect?

- ☐ constant criticism of a child by one or both parents
- ☐ a parent losing their temper and hitting a child
- ☐ failing to provide sufficient food for a child
- ☐ shaking a baby because it would not stop crying

